

OPERATION <sup>2010</sup> HOMEGUARD

Ingleton's
1940's
Weekend
3rd & 4th July

Ingleton Village needs you...

... to come along and join in our journey back to the 1940's for a weekend of entertainment and nostalgia, two days packed with fun for everyone, including:

Military vehicles; military and civilian re-enactors; liberation of the German occupied French Market Square by Allied forces; Cenotaph parade; military parade led by the Black Watch Pipes & Drums; Saturday night dance with the Starlight Swing Orchestra; Sunday afternoon Tea Dance.

Entertainment by Gracie Lands, P. E. Casper (George Formby) and Major Swing.

Performances by the Ovaltiney's; the Helen Howard School of Dancing Can-Can Girls and the Ingleton Middle School Dancers.

Trade stalls, Battle of Britain flypast (to be confirmed), static Spitfire display, street party and much more!!

Please note that the programme of events is subject to change.
